FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Why was this program started?

A: The main goal is to highlight every area of South Dakota, encouraging individuals through gamification to explore and experience hidden treasures found throughout the state.

Q: Are visitors limited to participating in only one passport?

A: No. There is no limited to the number of passports each visitor may use. Passports are continuously being updated and additional passports are in the works. Visitors are encouraged to sign up for any and all passports.

Q: How do people get their prizes?

A: Once visitors have checked into the required number of locations resulting in point accumulation, participants will redeem their points for the desired prize from within the passport application. Travel South Dakota will then send prize recipients the designated prize(s) by mail.

Q: How long does this program run?

A: The current passports (Great Finds, State of Create, Peaks to Plains) expires April 1, 2024. Following April 1, 2024, users will be asked to register for the next year's passports.

Q: Who do I contact if someone is having trouble with their passport?

A: Call or text 888-921-5333 or email support@bandwango.com.

Q: Where do I get promotional materials for the Passport Programs?

A: Contact Erin Weinzettel at erin.weinzettel@travelsouthdakota.com to receive access to posters, handouts, social post graphics, etc.

Q: What future passports will Travel South Dakota be creating?

A: Travel South Dakota plans to continue to evolve the current passports, in addition to adding Tribal Nations and Black to Yellow passports later this year.

Q: How were businesses, events and locations selected to be part of the program?

A: Participants in the program were nominated by fellow industry members as a hidden gem location within the state, deserving recognition as part of the program.

Q: Know of a hidden gem you think should be a part of a South Dakota Passport?

A: Email your location suggestion(s) for any of the South Dakota Passports to erin.weinzettel@travelsouthdakota.com.
